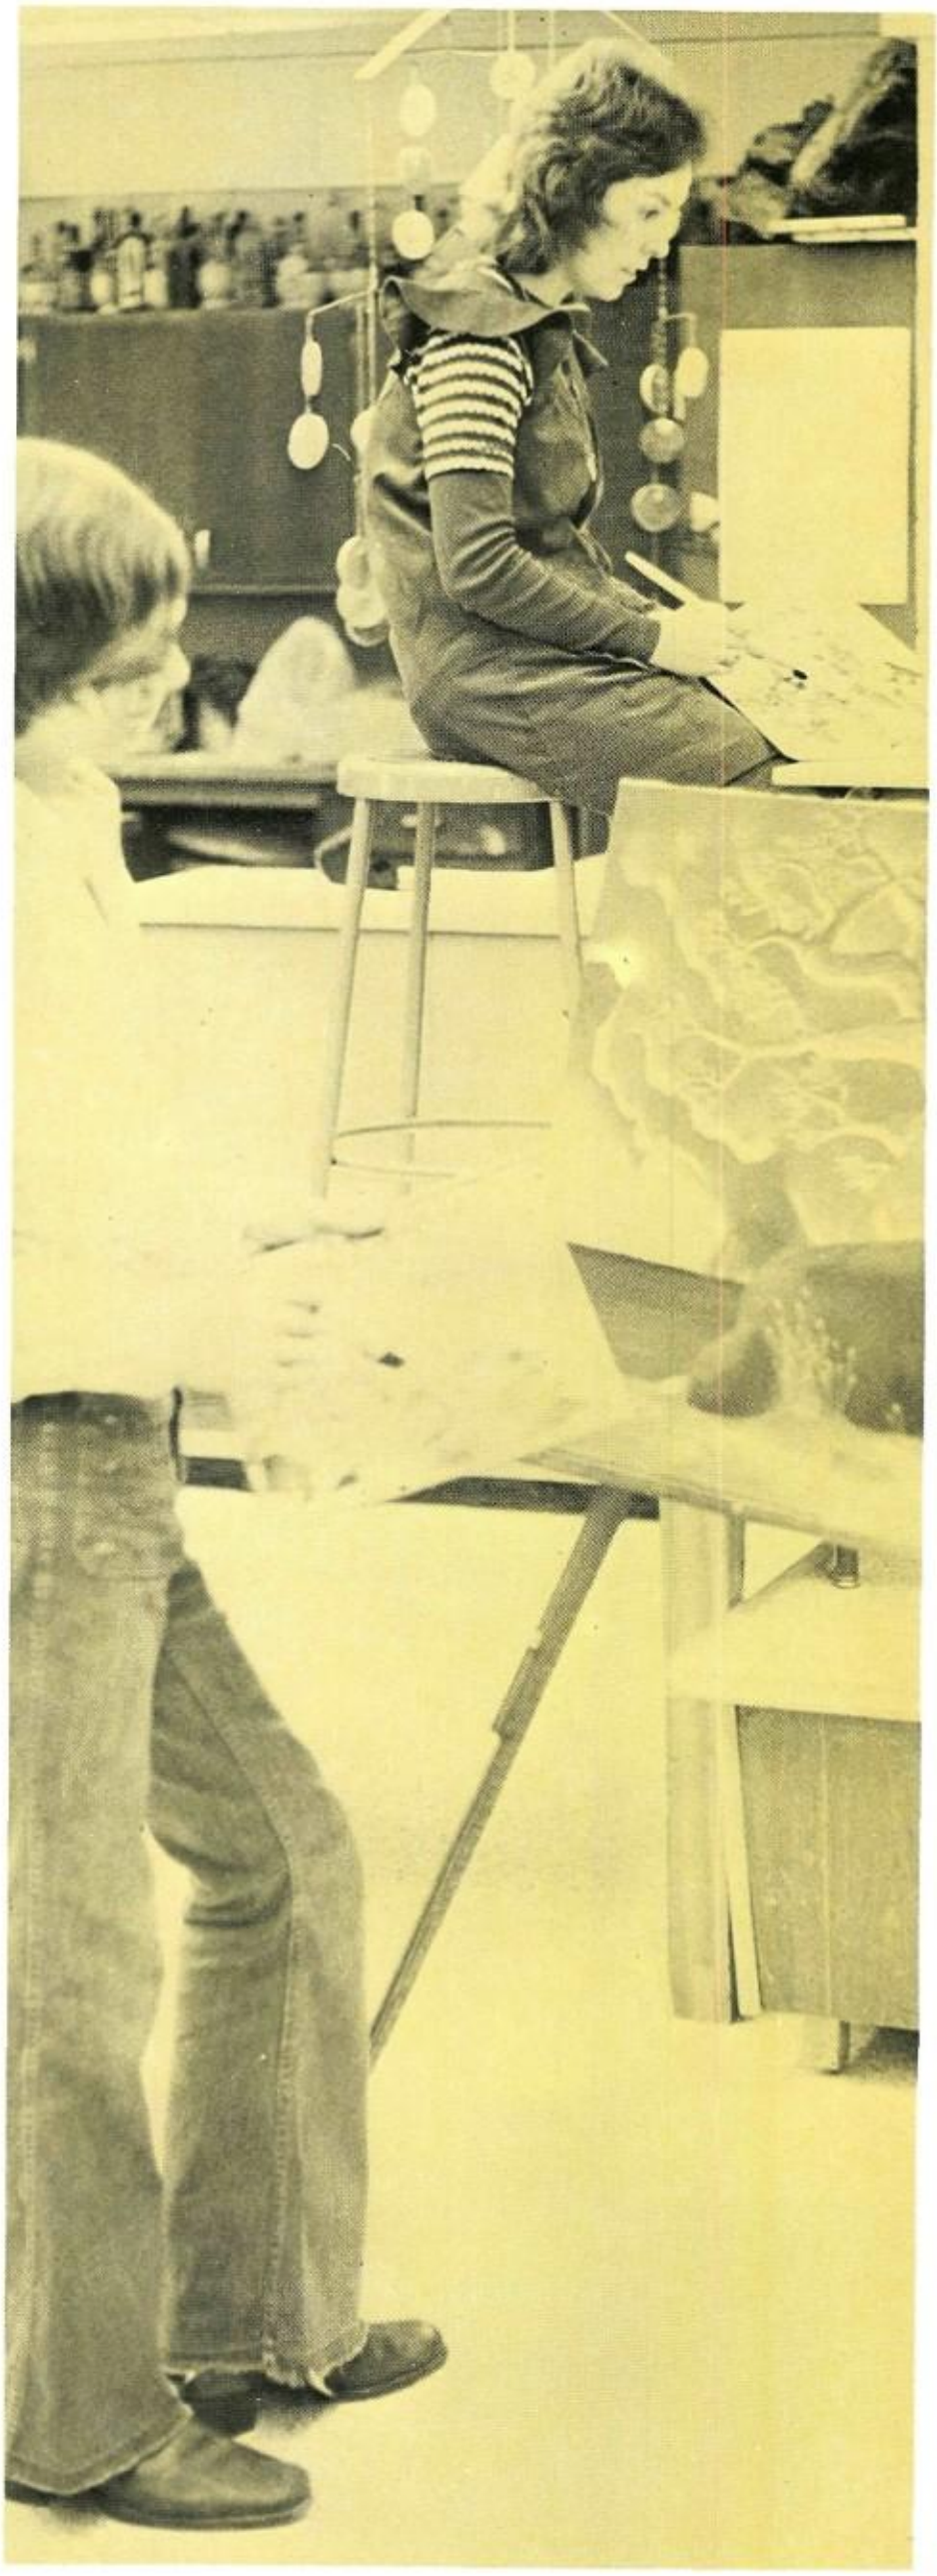
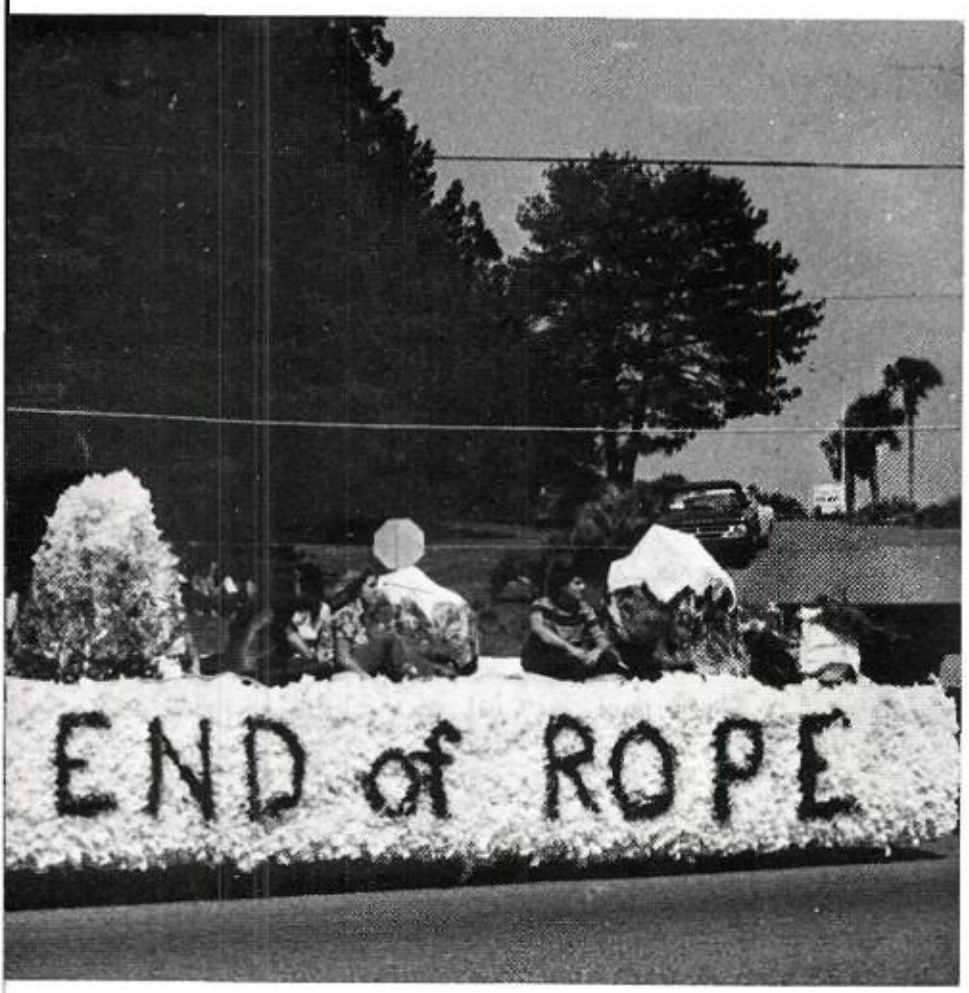
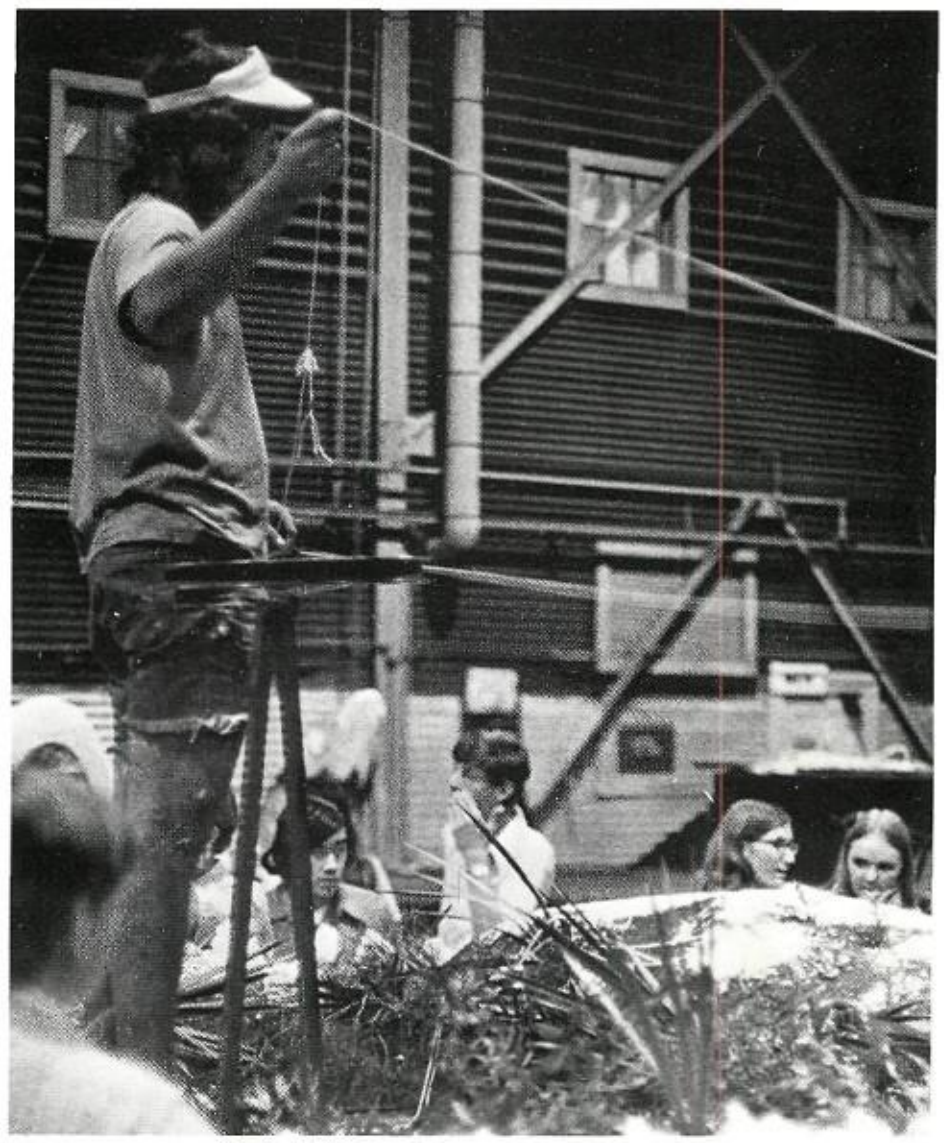
OF THE EAGLES



"Where Eagles Dare"

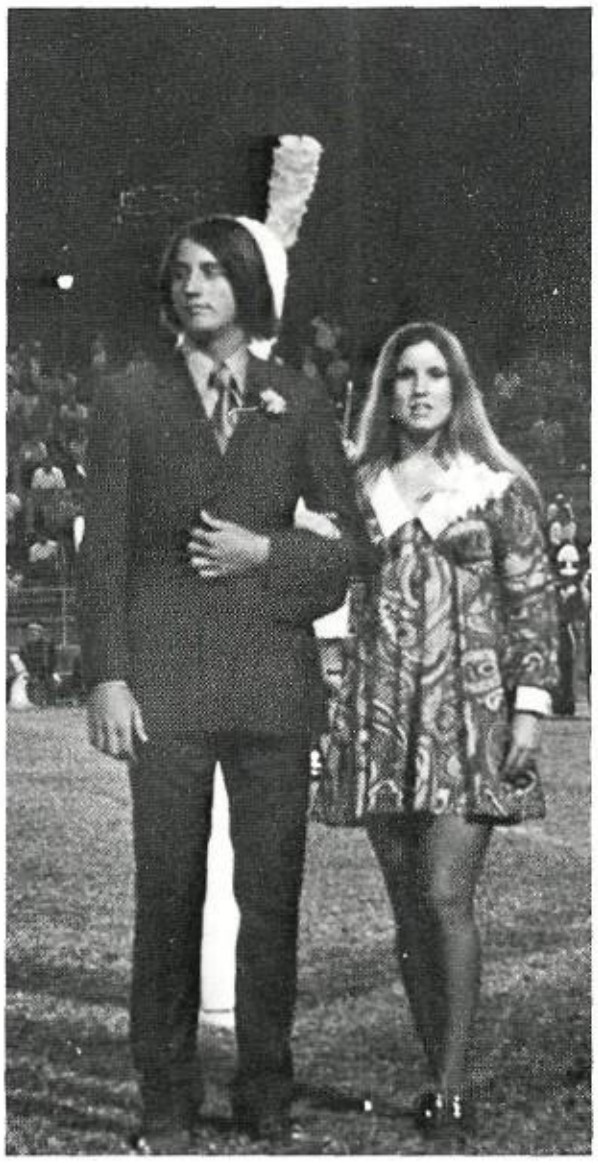
Homecoming 1972-73



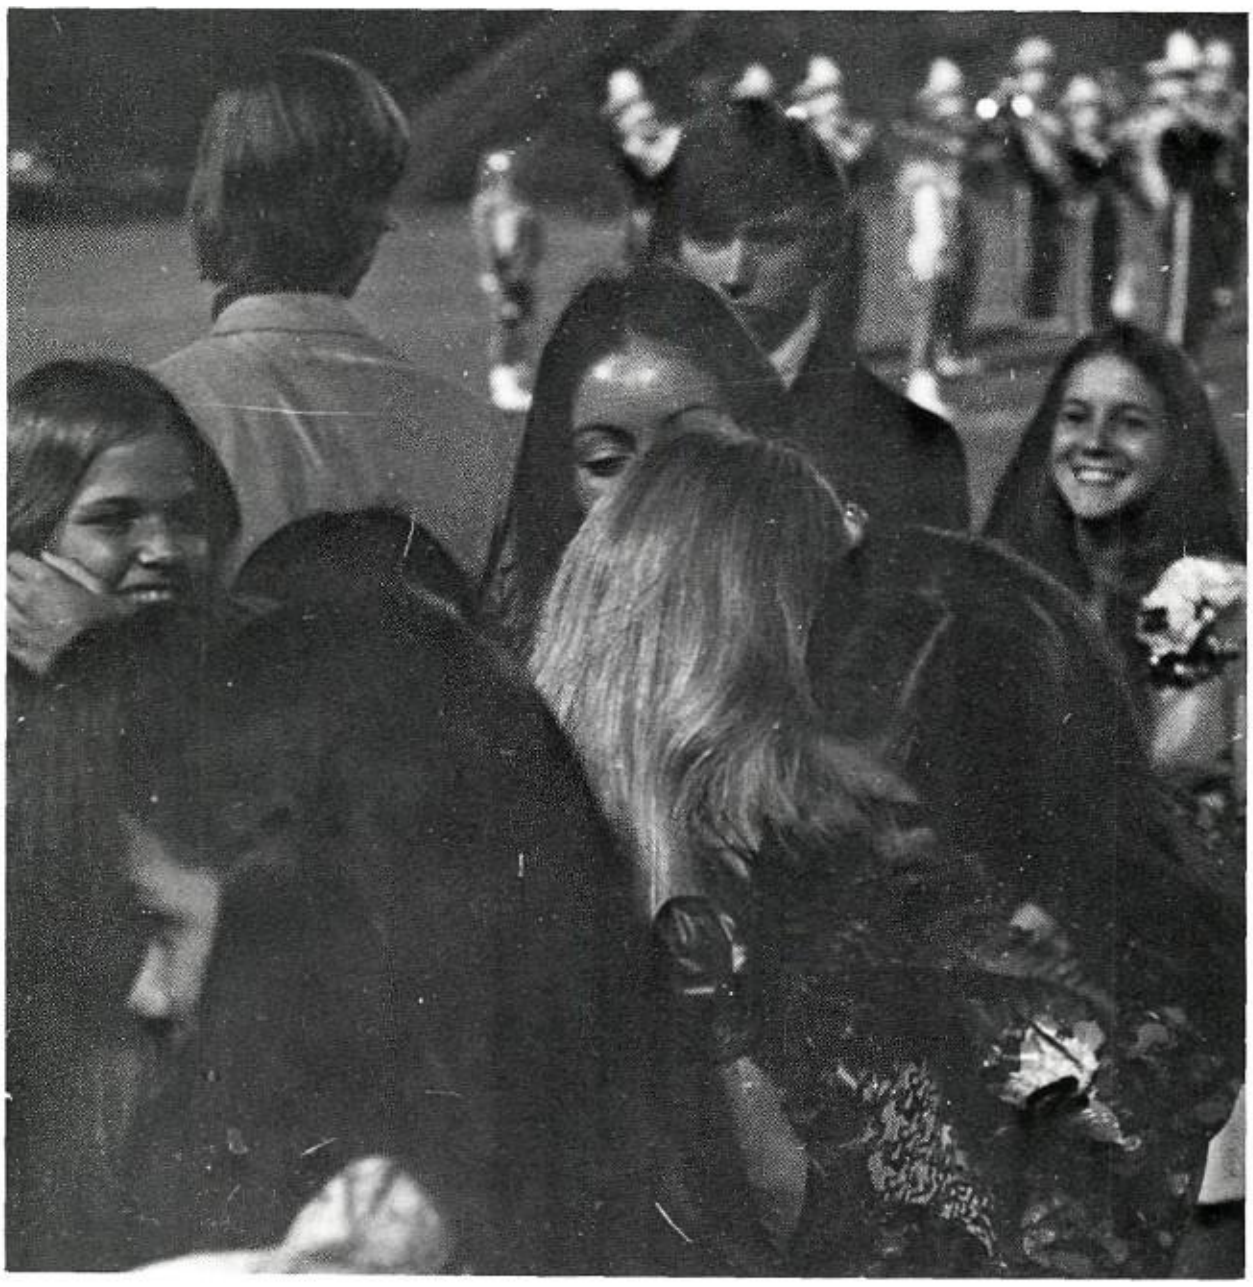


Jennifer Angelos, an active member of Keyettes, represented the Junior class and was escorted by John Grimes.

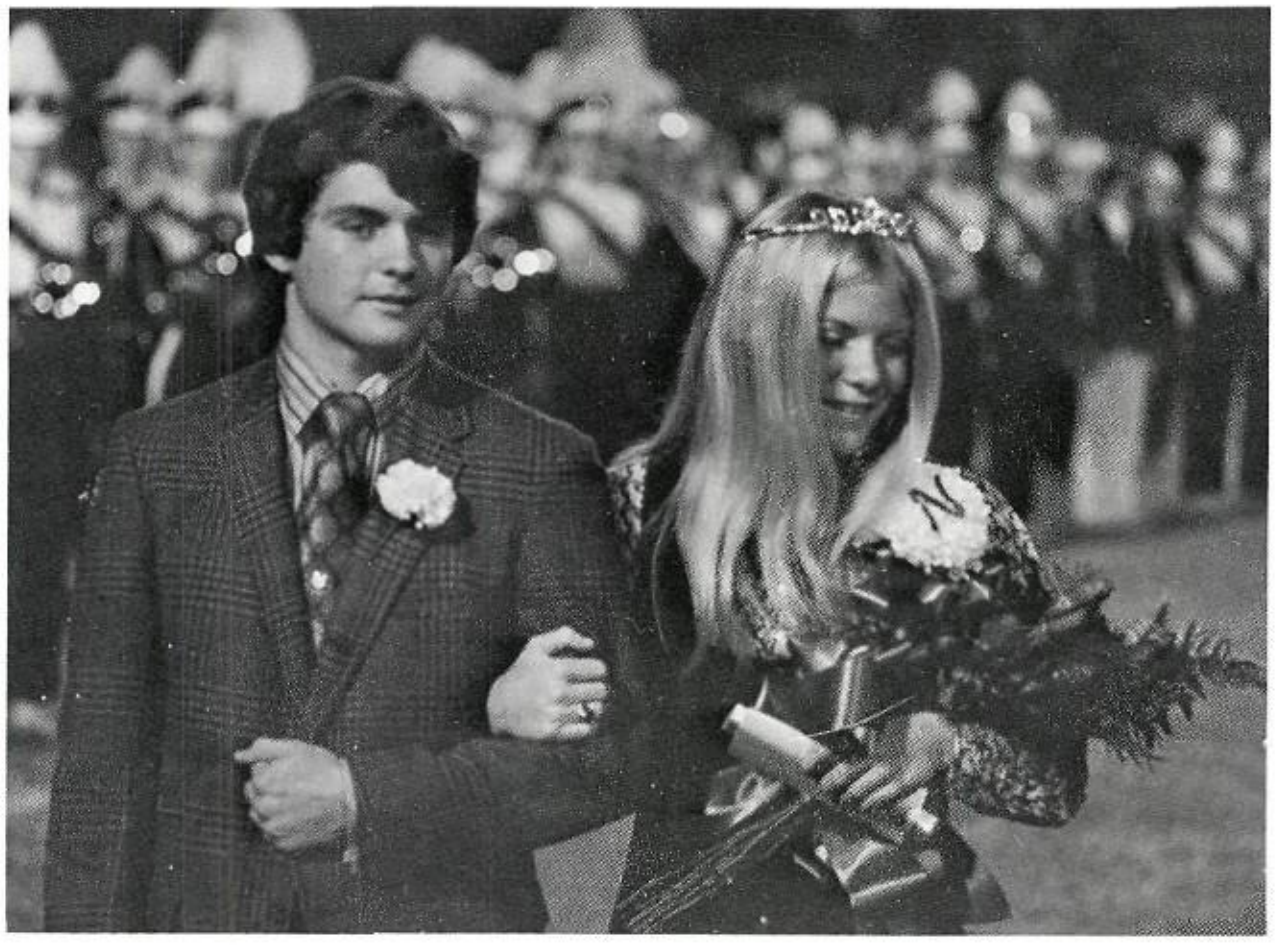
Active Wheelette Donna Burch selected Jim Holmlund to escort her.



Kathy Kuehlthau, active Eagle watergirl, chose as her escort, Allen Angela.



'73 Homecoming Queen Crowned



The student body elected Dawn Massoni to represent Niceville as the 1973 Homecoming Queen, and Stan seems to agree with this choice.

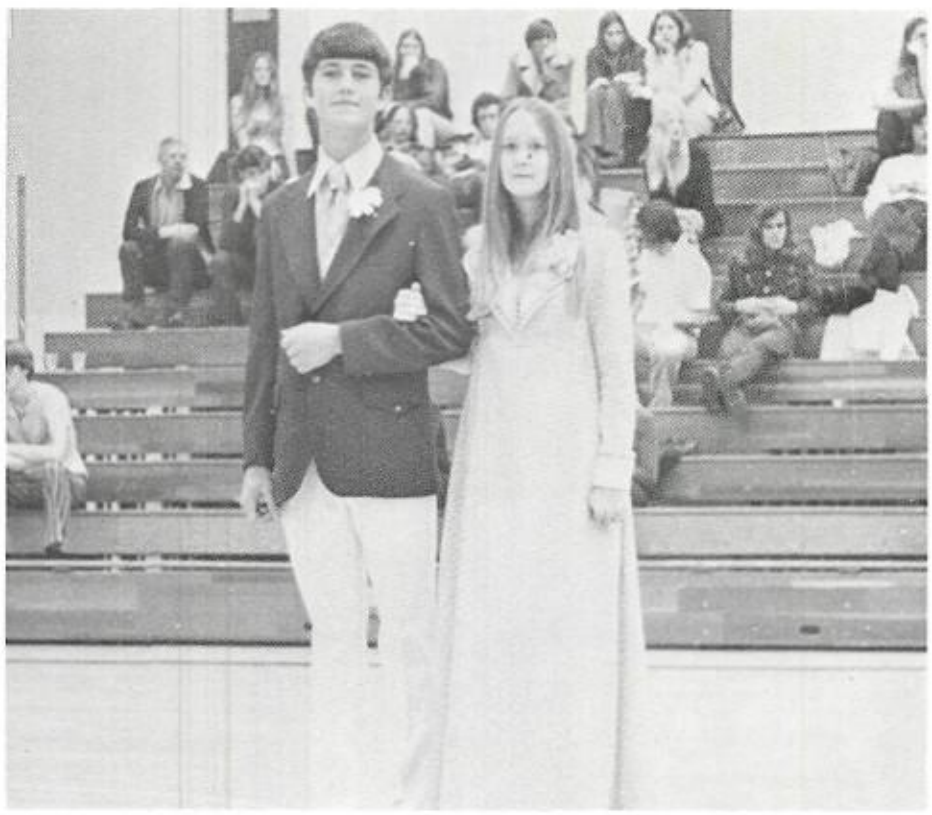
Dawn enjoys supporting the Eagles as Captain of the Varsity Cheerleaders.

Joey Kelly, Stan Sunday, and Pat Lang don't seem to mind their roles as escorts for Sophomore Becki Guidry and Seniors Dawn Massoni and Belinda Fondren who make it a memorable evening.

SPIRIT SOARS...

Robin Named Basketball Sweetheart

On March 19, the Keyettes sponsored a Basketball Homecoming. The basketball team chose five attendants and from these girls selected a Sweetheart. Robin Nelson, escorted by Stan Sunday, was selected Sweetheart. Other attendants were: Jan Alexander, escorted by Allan Harris, Donna Burch, escorted by Byron Green, Janet Busbee, escorted by Mark Gardner, and Pam Frady, escorted by Joey Kelly.



Suzette Crowned Jr. Miss

December 9th was an exciting night for the ten contestants in the 1973 Jr. Miss Pageant. Suzette Moore was crowned Niceville-Valparaiso Jr. Miss. First runner-up was Stormy Wilson, second runner-up was Kathy Kuehltau. Other contestants were Andre Crooke, Miss Congeniality; Debbie Driver; Pam Mathers; Cheryl Seaitz; Diane Gaiser; Susie Schuler; and Michelle Orlando.

Sophomores Present N. H. S. Pinafore

The Sophomore Class presented the N.H.S. Pinafore, a talent show. Cash prizes of five, ten and fifteen dollars were awarded to the top three contestants. Tommy Phillips, who sang and played an original number on the guitar won first place. The Reasons: Joey Kelly, Allan Anglea, Charlie Shand, Randy Cuchens, and Stan Sunday, sang two numbers and were awarded second place. Rick Schneblin, who recited an original dedication to the return of the POW's won third place. Billy Mosteferis was the master of ceremonies. The show was also presented in the evening, and was an equal success. The sophomore class collected $507, part of which was raised for the annual Senior Breakfast.

Cheerleaders Lead Pep Rallies

The NHS Cheerleaders put forth a great effort in building up the school spirit. They made signs for the games and also did favors for the athletic teams. The Varsity Cheerleaders were: Karen Dearborne, Sarah Littel, Dawn Massoni, Hope Medecky, Debbie Miller, Patty Reed, Missi Skinner, Vicki Strong, and Eagle mascot was Debbie Gibb.

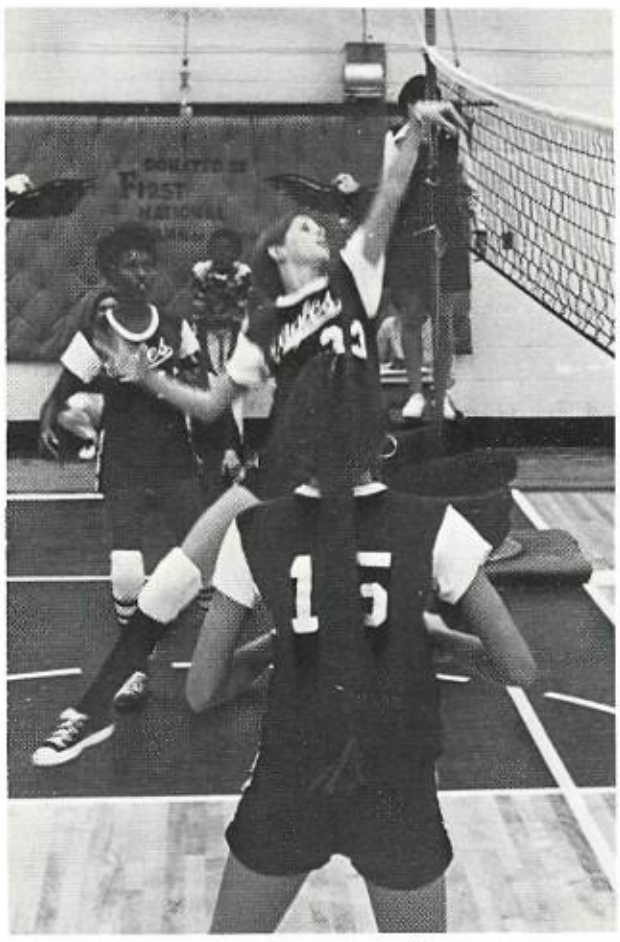
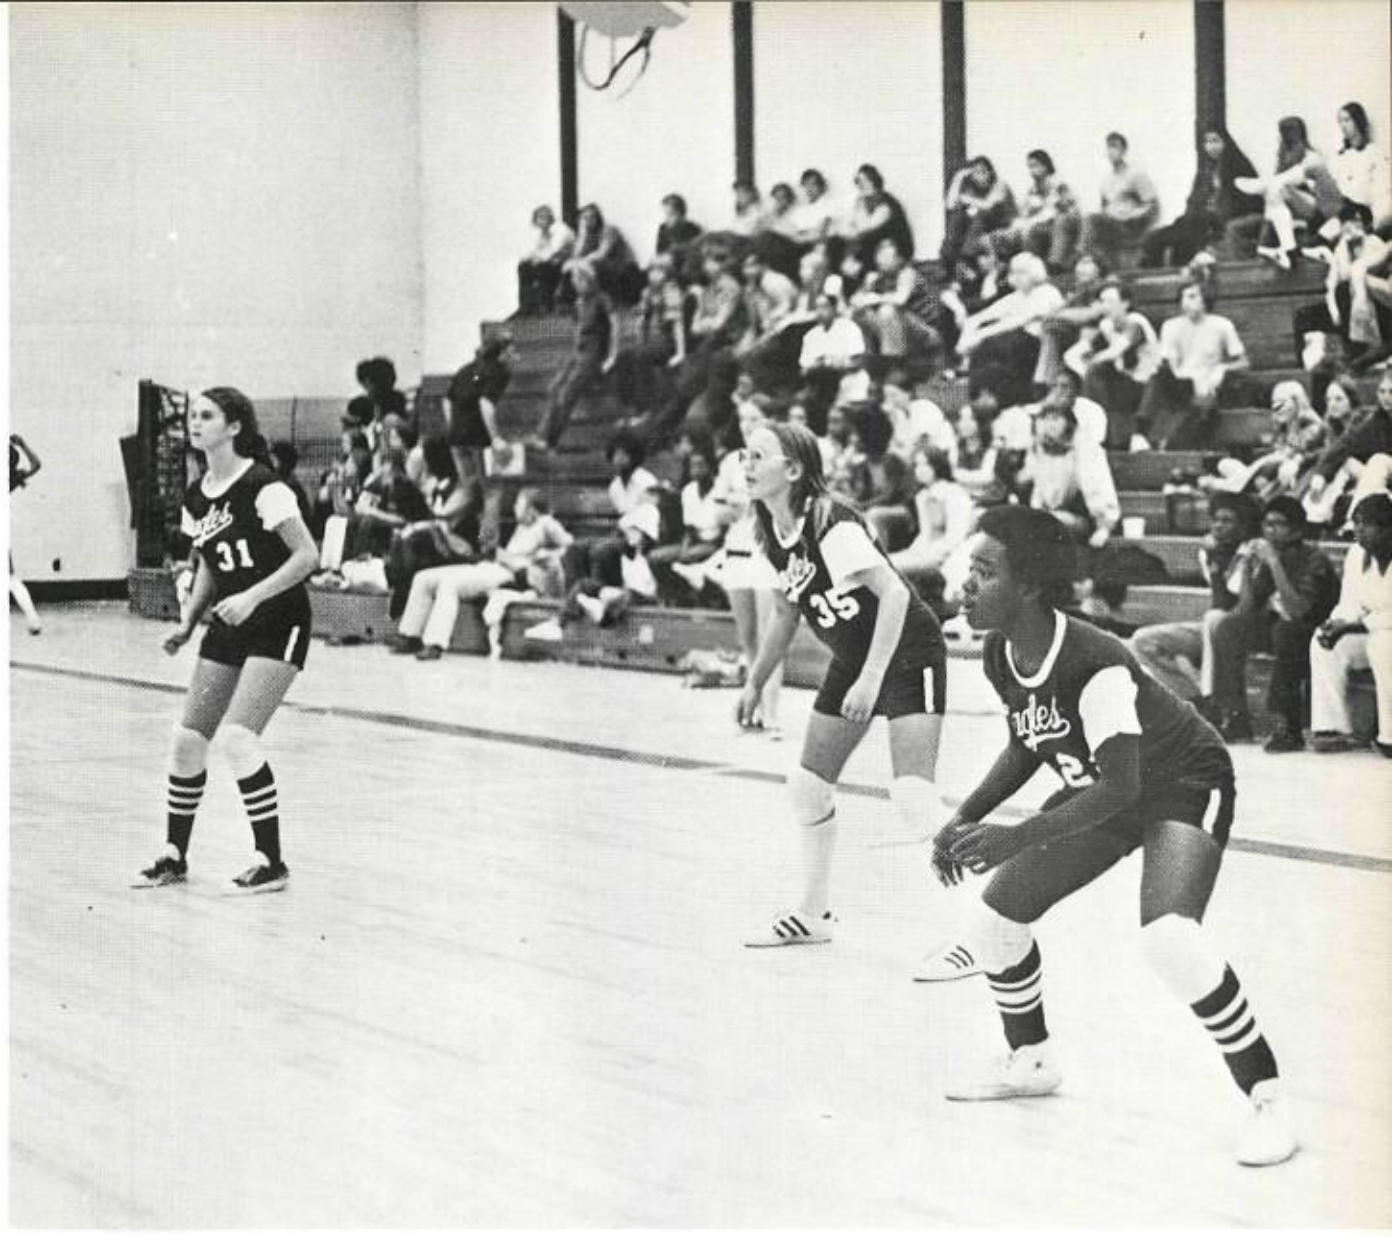
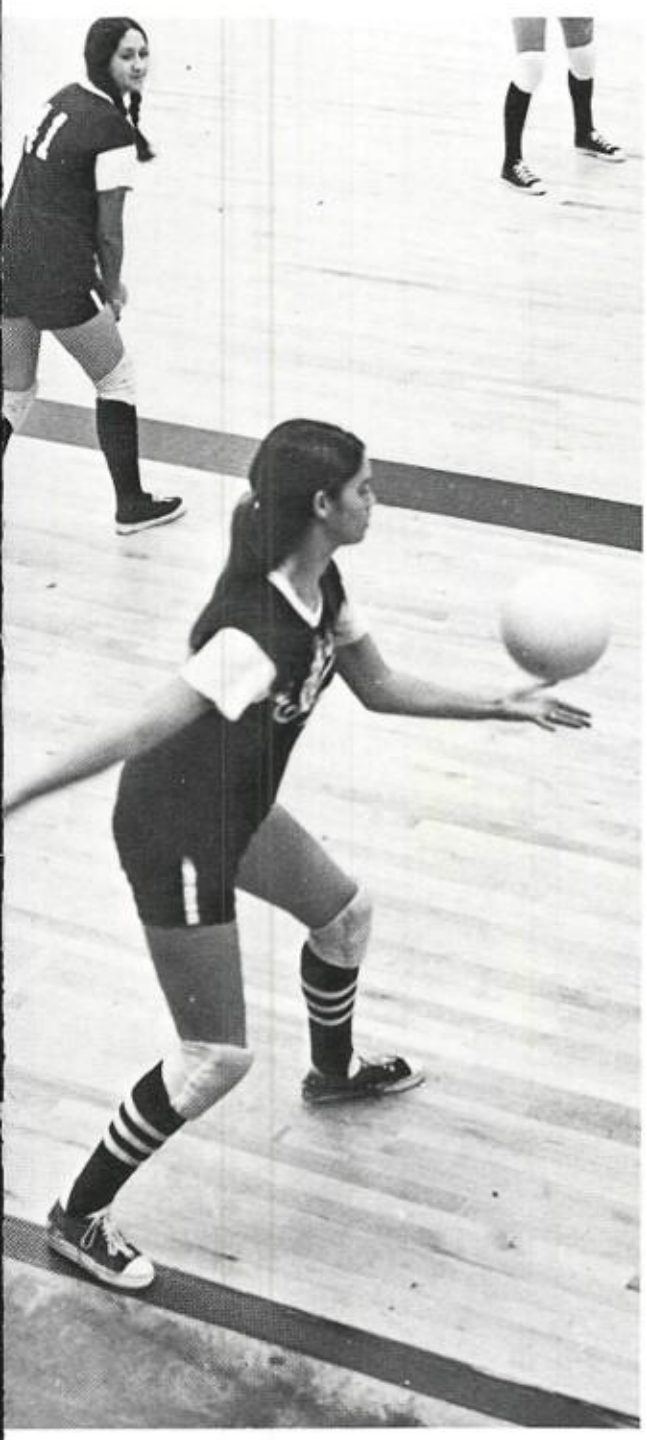
Eagle Girls Played Volleyball

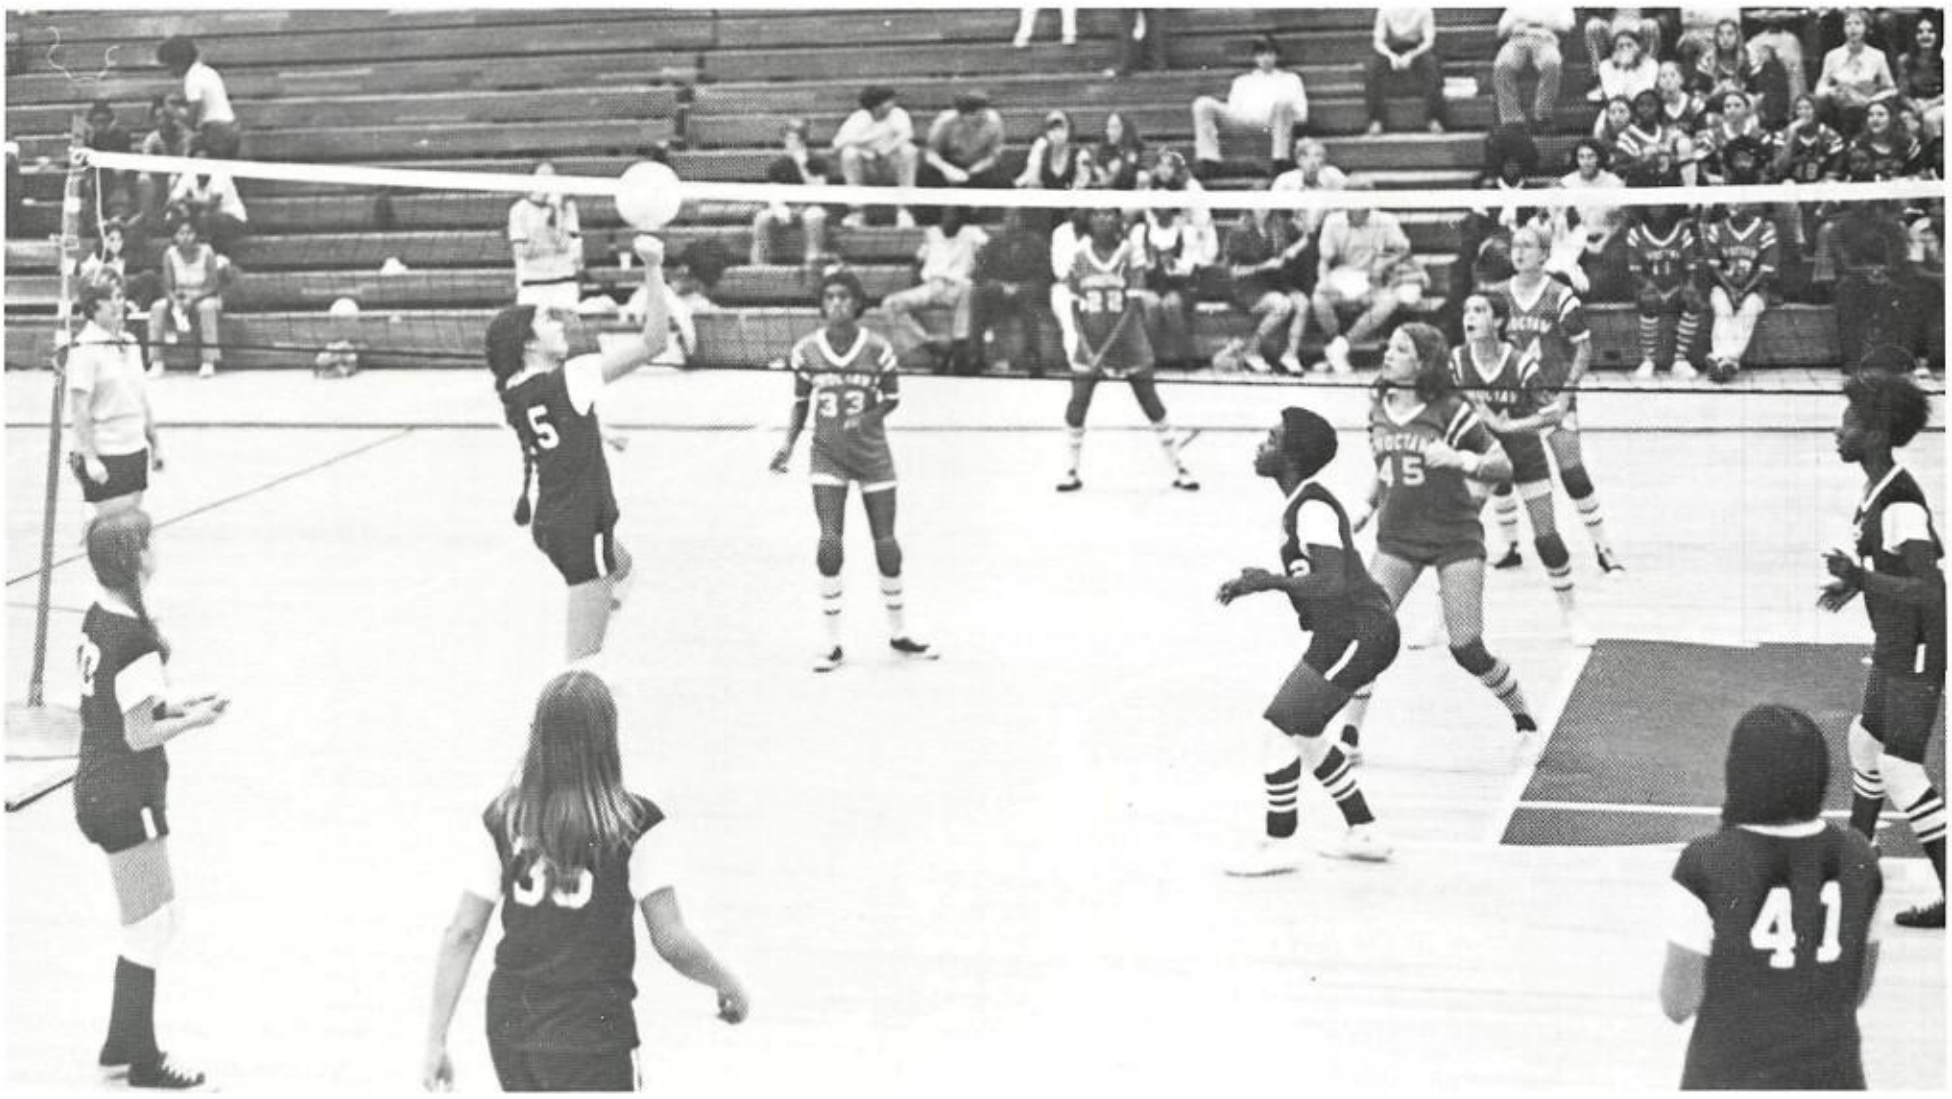


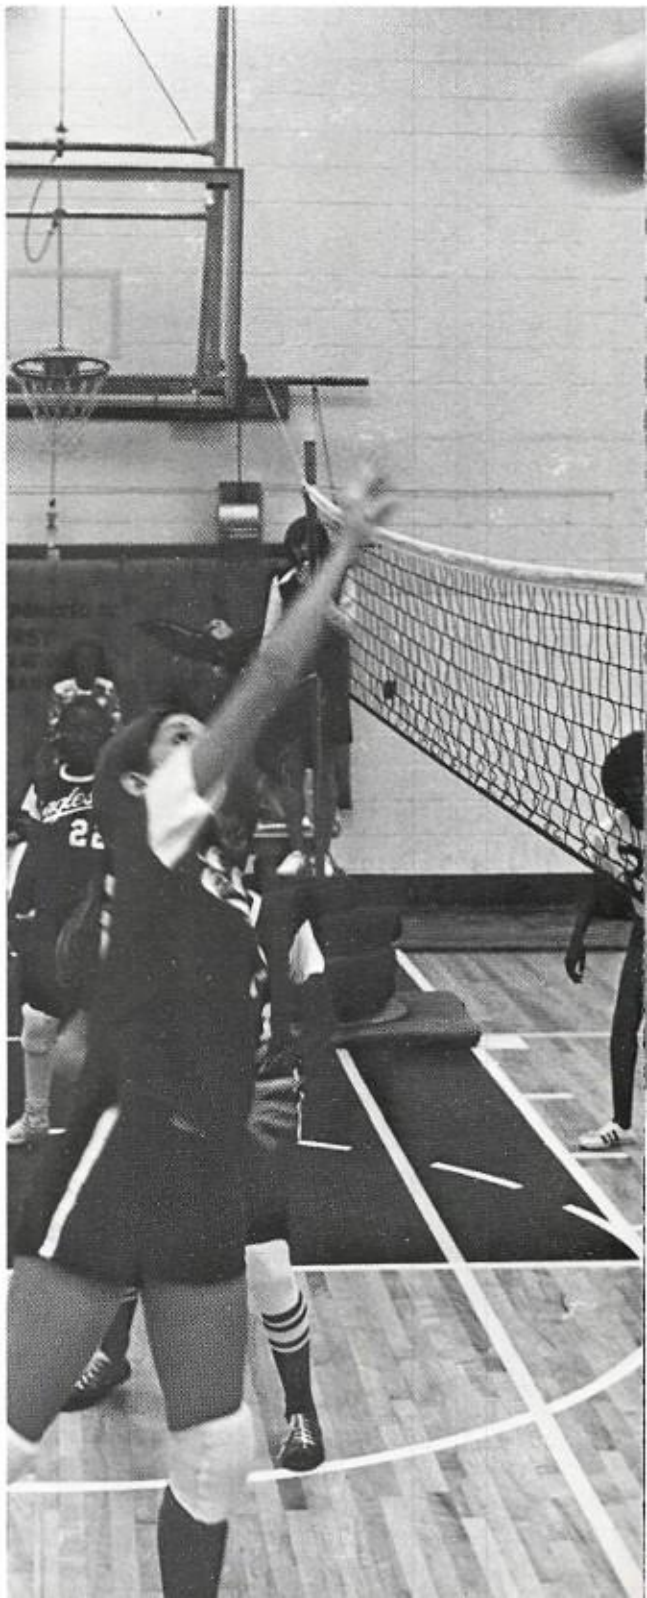
This was a very successful season for Niceville's' Girls' Volleyball teams. Under the excellent coaching of Mrs. King, the "A" team took second place, and the "B" team took first place in the county tournament.





Absolute team work and endurance, gave the "A" team a very impressive season. Many hours of hard practice and effort proved to be well worth the time spent by both, coach and girls.

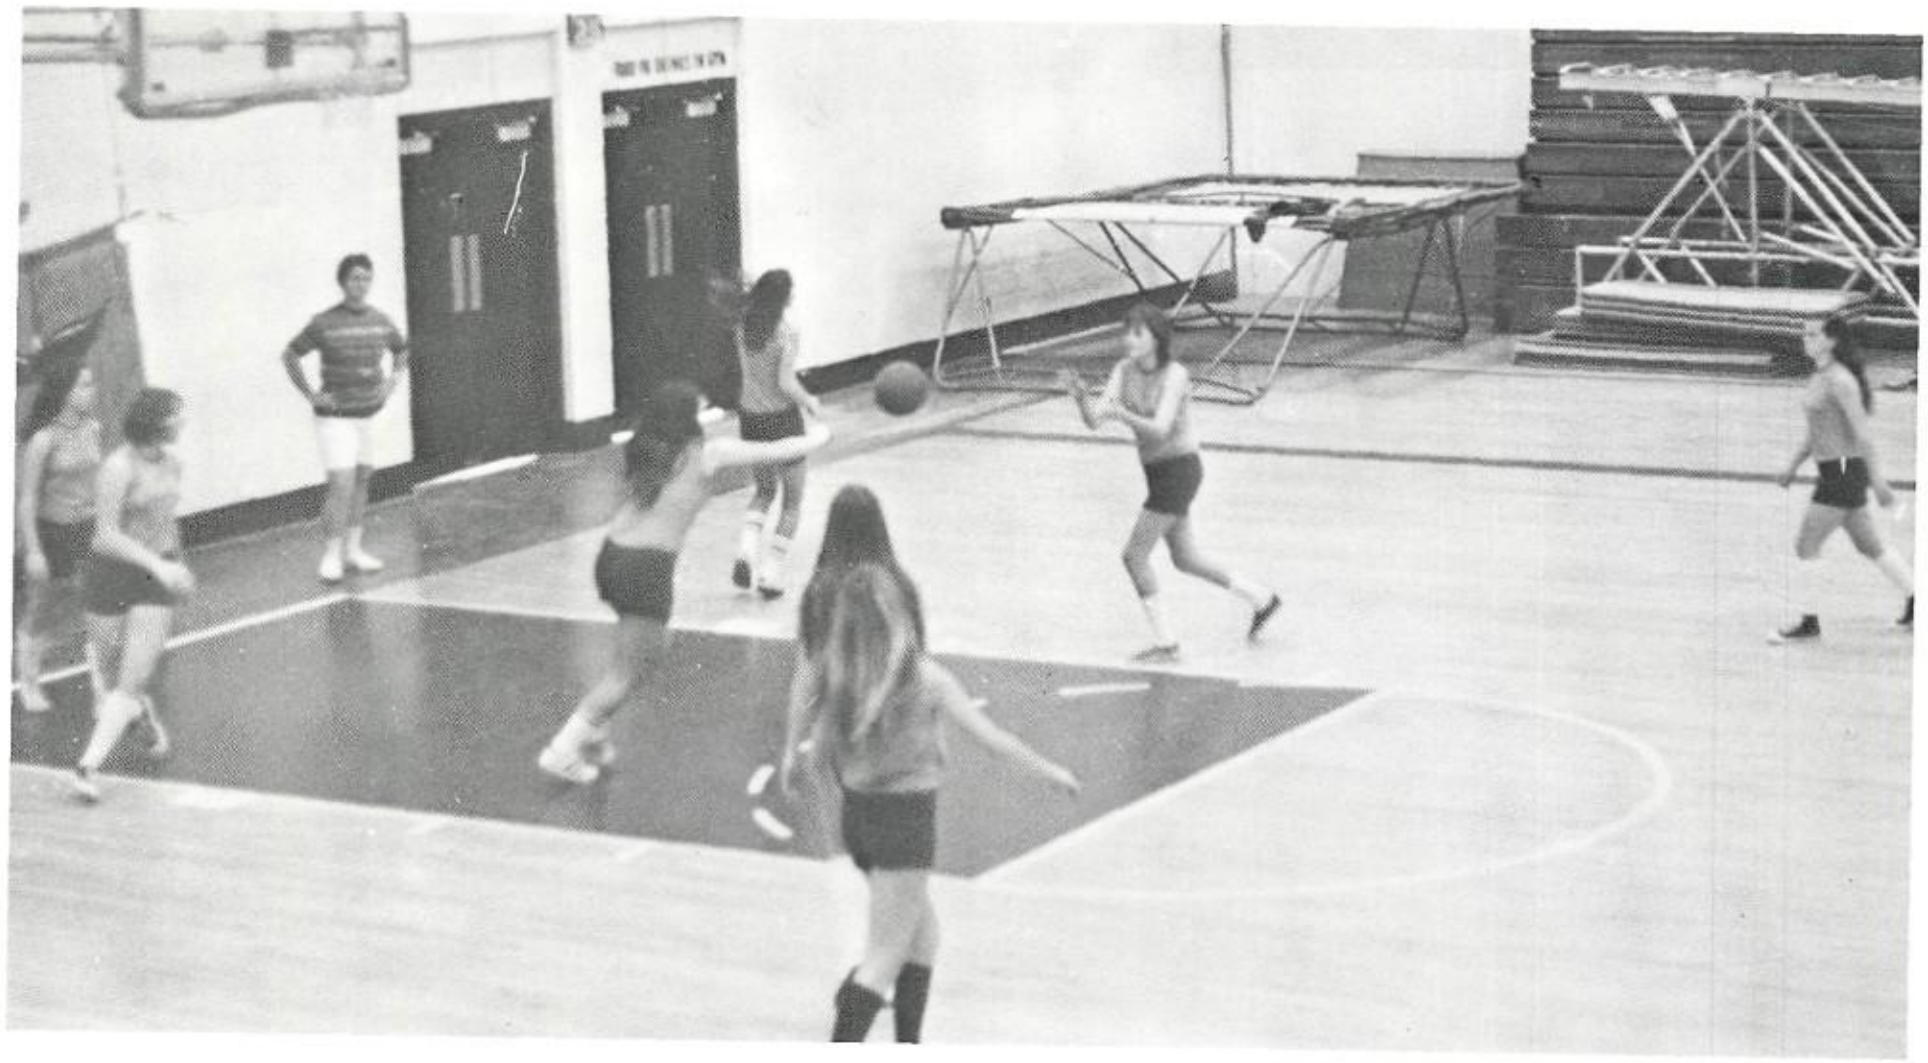


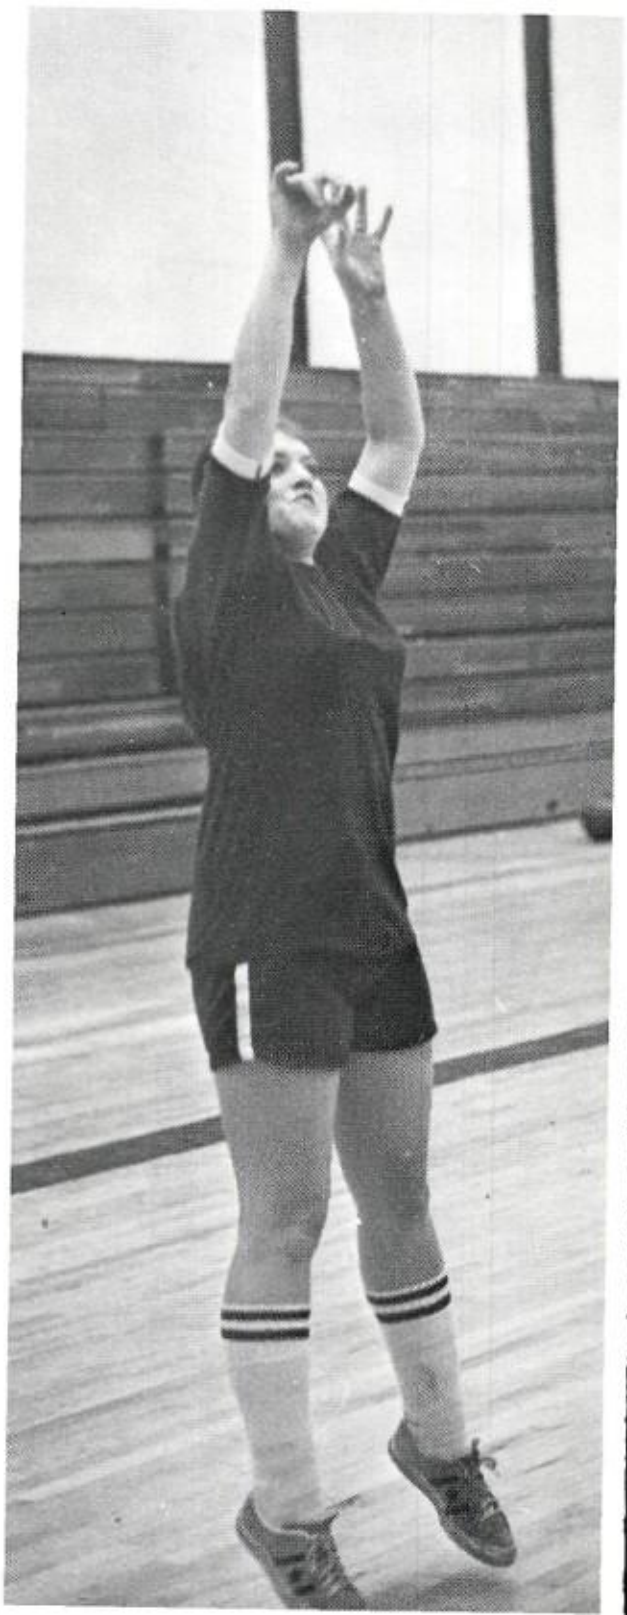


The games played against Choctawatchee, by "B" team were very close, but complete team effort and determination for a common goal proved most beneficial and gave the girls a big win.

Eagles Aim for the County Title

For the third consecutive year the Girl's Basketball teams aimed for the county title. After long hours of practice both teams participated in the county tournament held at Fort Walton High, March 19 and 20.





The "A" team, consisting of Juniors and Seniors, battled five other schools in an effort to retain their title. Juniors and Sophomores made up the "B" team and were challenged by the same five rivals.

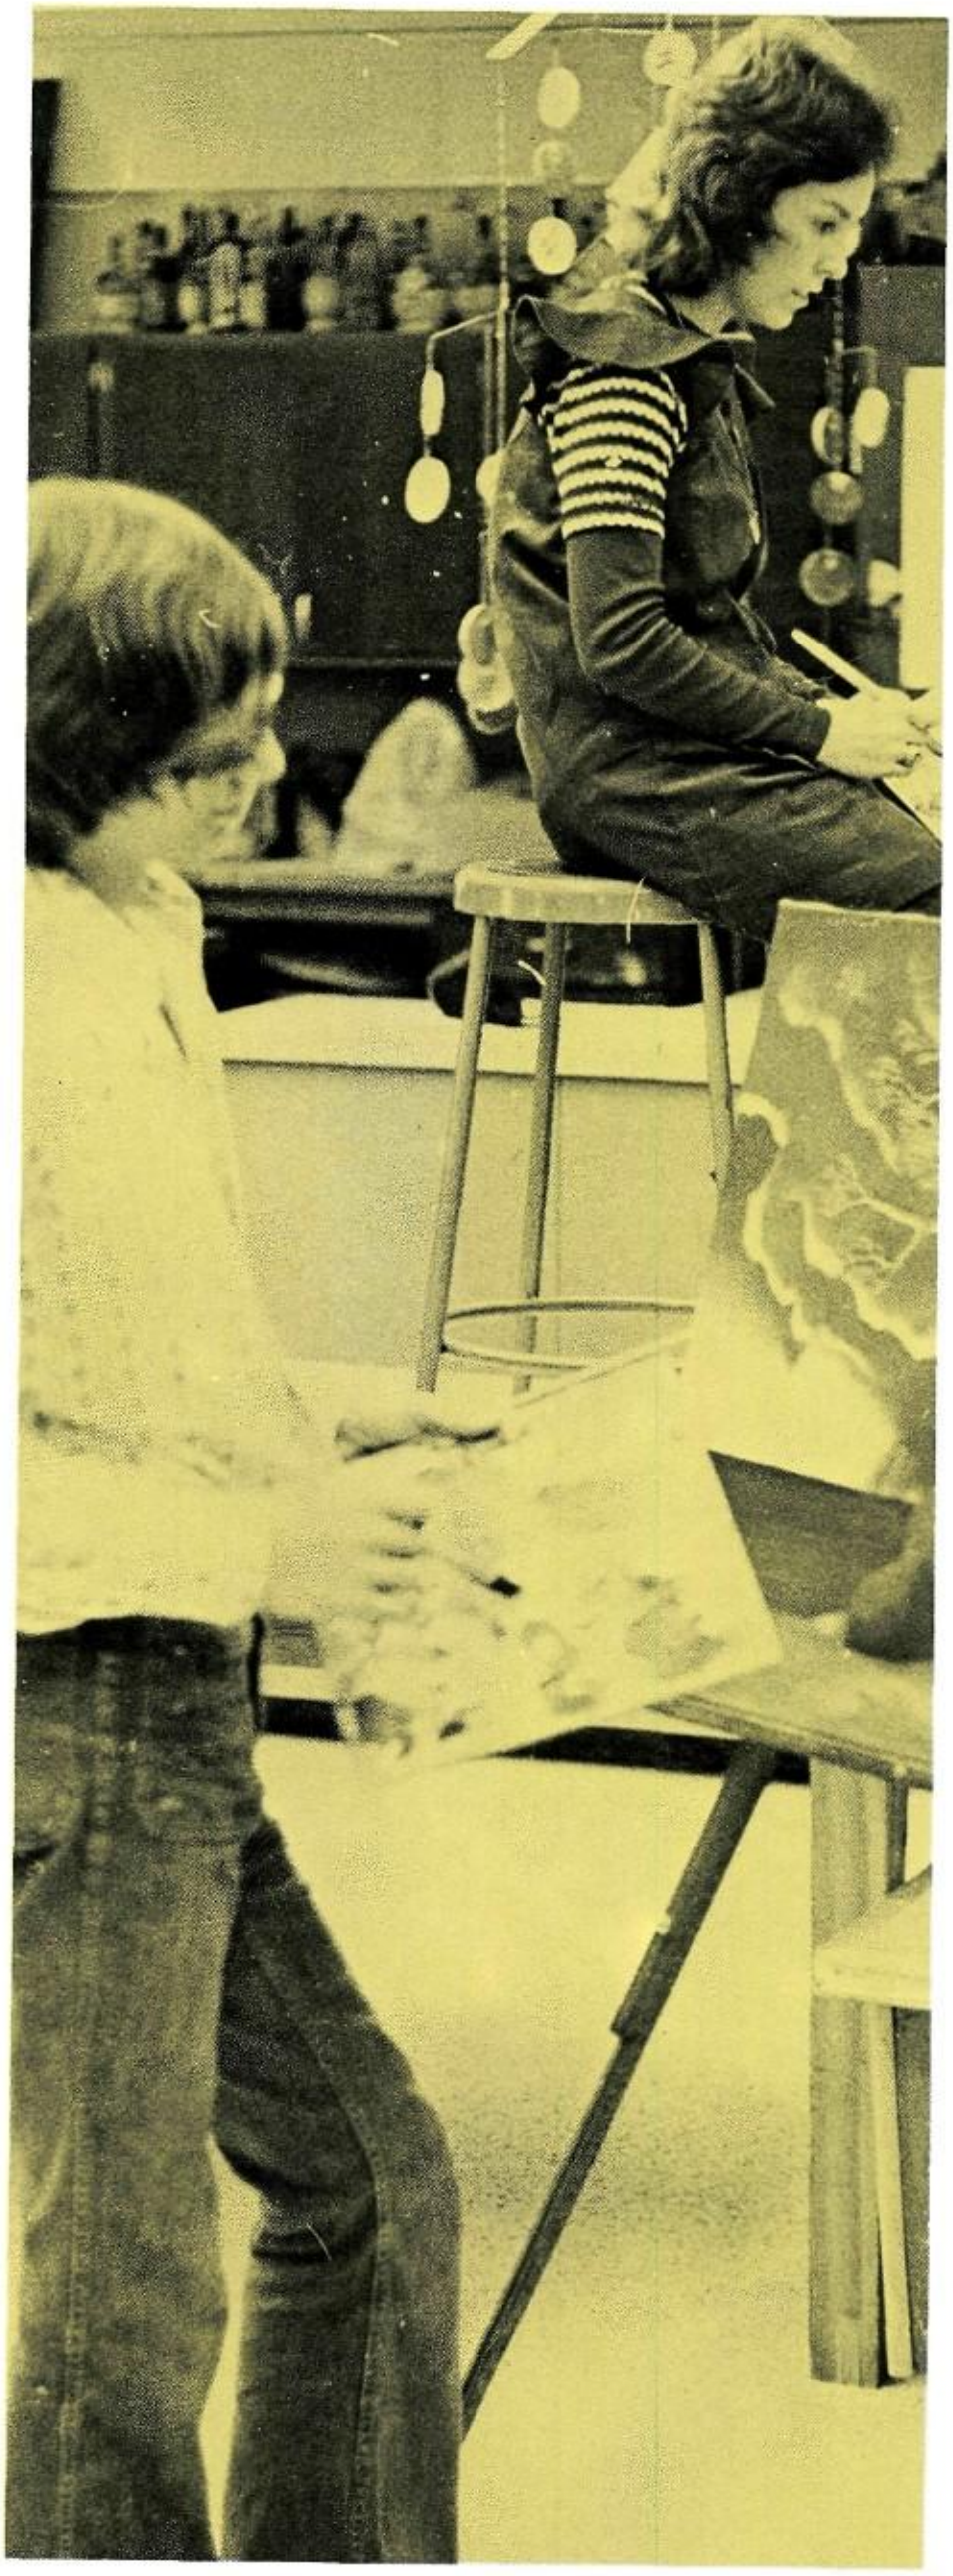
THE EAGLES



English Dept. Adjusts to Semester System

Changing to the semester system, the English Department was able to offer a variety of courses to the students. Instead of having a full year of English, students were able to choose any desired semester course. Their choices consisted of separate courses: literature, writing, grammar and composition, or speech and drama. Another change permitted the students to graduate with only two required English credits.
